B. & O. NOTES

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 13.—A report, just issued by the comptroller of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, setting forth the official road mileage of tracks, owned, jointly owned, leased and over which the road has trackage rights, as of June 30, 1915, shows a total of 8,786.32 miles of all tracks operated.

The road operates a total of 5,845.85 miles of third track and 39.60 miles of fourth track, and in addition 2,940.47 miles of side tracks.

West Virginia Coal Production. The coal output of West Virginia in 1914, was 71,707,626 tons, according to the United States Geological Survey. This was an increase of 500,000 tons over the banner year, 1913 and placed West Virginia second in the production of coal.

The value of the coal at the mines was $71,391,408.

Records for Loading Vessels. With dispatch in loading vessels proving an important factor in America's export trade, the keen rivalry existing between the ports on the Atlantic seaboard is shown in the grain records. A trade paper published a statement recently that all records for quick loading of grain were broken on July 16, at Philadelphia, when the British steamer "Pengreep" was loaded with 260,000 bushels of wheat and 5,500 bags were filled for trimming in thirteen hours at the New Girard Point elevator.

Baltimore claims to have established a better record than Philadelphia. The manager of the Baltimore chamber of commerce, who points out that the steamer "Burnby" was loaded with 303,960 bushels of oats in eleven working hours, twenty-five minutes, including 2,510 bags filled for trimming, which were loaded at elevator "B" in the Baltimore and Ohio railroad's Locust Point terminal of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Efficiency and Economy. Under the campaign for a clean right of way inaugurated by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad in which the employees are enlisted to prevent the waste of supplies and gather up scrap material the railroad continues to effect a saving in expenses. From August 1 to 15, Conductor G. M. Blauman, of the Cleveland division, gathered up material which resulted in a saving of $76.33 to the company. Engineers are practicing economy in the use of fuel and water in order to obviate delays incident to stops at coaling and watering stations.

Train Riders and Trespassers. Incident to a campaign against unlawful train riding and trespassing, which the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is pursuing in an effort to reduce the number of accidents resulting in death and injury to persons using no business on the property, officers of the road recently found it necessary to arrest six men and eight boys in a day in one of the suburbs of Pittsburg to remove them from the danger of tracks and yards.

The ages of the boys ranged from twelve to sixteen years and officials of the railroad believe that by turning these children over to the city authorities the lives of some of them were saved.

The railroad has enlisted the help of school teachers to caution children against the danger of trespassing upon railroad tracks and "hooking rides" on trains.

Meddlesome's Wedding
March Played
On Cornet

LARNED, Kan., Sept. 14.—The Tiller and Toller publishes this account of a local wedding:

"The wedding bells pealed joyfully at the home of H. R. Drake last Tuesday, when their highly accomplished and beautiful daughter, Melva, became the blushing bride of that sterling young farmer, Henry Eastman. The bride's brother, Charles, played Meddlesome's wedding march on his cornet, and considering the fact he has only had it about nine months, it sounded good.

"The Rev. Osgood, who has been working through harvest and picking up a little on the side, performed the nuptials. The bride's costume was a sort of light gauzy affair and with alippers and stockings to match. Of they went on their wedding trip, then went on their wedding trip, then went on their wedding trip. Quite a merry crowd assembled to see them off, and as they didn't have any rice, some of them got to throwing roasting ears. Henry was struck under the eye by a large ear and blacked it pretty bad. They drove right to Larned and stayed all night at the hotel, and then took their wedding trip to Kinsley and Dodge City. They have rented the old home place and will be at home next Tuesday. Melva expects to take chage of Cooper and Jones's cook shack the rest of the season."

Scotch shipwrights earn $9 a week.

To the Public. "I feel that I owe the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy a word of gratitude," writes Mrs. T. N. Witherall, Gowanda, N. Y., "When I began taking this medicine I was in great pain and feeling terribly sick, due to an attack of summer complaint. After taking a dose of it I had not long to wait for relief as it benefited me almost immediately." Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.
